09 Civ. 3701 (JPO) (JCF)

AFFIDAVIT OF JONATHAN M. REDGRAVE

I, Jonathan M. Redgrave, Esquire, being duly sworn, depose and say, under penalty of perjury, the following:

1. I am partner with the law firm Redgrave LLP ("Redgrave firm").

This affidavit is made on my personal knowledge.

2. I am licensed to practice law in the District of Columbia and the State of Minnesota, and am also a member in good standing of the following Federal Courts: United States Supreme Court; United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit; United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit; United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit; United States District Court for the District of Columbia; United States District Court of the Eastern District of Michigan; and the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota.

3. I am filing this affidavit pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 53(b)(3). There is no ground for my disqualification as a master in this case under 28 U.S.C. § 455 as I do not have any relationship to the parties, attorneys, action or court in the above-captioned matter that would require disqualification of a justice, judge or magistrate judge under 28 U.S.C. § 455.

4. In particular:

(a) I do not have any personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceedings;

(b) While in private practice, I have not served as a lawyer in the above-captioned proceedings; no lawyer with whom I previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter; neither I nor any lawyer with whom I previously practiced law has been a material witness concerning it;

(c) I have not served in governmental employment in any capacity where I participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the above-captioned proceedings or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(d) I, individually and as a fiduciary, do not have a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceedings, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the above-captioned proceedings. Additionally, neither my spouse nor minor children residing in my household have any such interests;

(e) Neither I, nor a person within the third degree of relationship to me:

- (i) is a party to the proceedings, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;
- (ii) is acting as a lawyer in the proceedings;
- (iii) is known by me to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceedings; or
- (iv) is to my knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceedings.

(f) For purposes of making this affidavit, I have informed myself about my personal and fiduciary financial interests as well made a reasonable effort to inform myself as to those of my spouse and minor children residing in my household.

Further, affiant sayeth naught.

Jonathan M. Redgrave, Esquire

SWORN TO AND SUBSCRIBED

before me this 12th day of February, 2014.

My commission expires: January 31st 2017

Notary Name: Sarah E. Garrett

Curriculum Vitae

SUMMARY

Jonathan regularly addresses issues involved in the discovery of electronic documents and issues concerning document and information management policies and practices. His practice includes pre-litigation concerns and solutions as well as litigation strategies and representation for both requesting and producing parties. Jonathan is a moving force behind, and currently Chair Emeritus of, the highly successful Sedona Conference Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production. Jonathan has been recognized for exceptional standing in the legal community in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business in the area of Electronic Discovery and Litigation since 2008.

Jonathan also has extensive experience in all areas of complex litigation. Notably, while a partner with Jones Day in Washington, D.C., Jonathan served as the designated Liaison Counsel for the tobacco industry defendants in the case of United States, et al. v. Philip Morris USA Inc., et al., during pre-trial and trial phases (March 2001 – October 2005).

Jonathan's work in the past several years includes:

- Serving as national and coordinating counsel for Fortune 100 clients in litigation matters with respect to the development and defense of discovery and litigation strategies related to electronic discovery
- Representing clients in court in contentious, high-stakes litigation with respect to electronic discovery issues
- Preparing and taking/defending depositions of corporate representatives regarding electronic discovery and records management issues
- Working with clients to develop sound records and information management policies and practices regarding paper and electronic data, including emerging technologies such as web-based collaboration tools and instant messaging
- Helping clients assess the retention and disposal of legacy data

- Assisting clients with the assessment of process and technology solutions for records and information management as well as electronic discovery
- Advising clients regarding privacy and data protection policies and practices
- Serving as a special master regarding discovery issues
- Serving as a consulting and testifying expert witness
